Transcript Guide

Prior to July 1, 2008, Carroll University was Carroll College.

ACADEMIC STANDINGS

All students are expected to maintain at least a C (2.00) grade-point average in Carroll University course work. Any student who does not maintain at least a 2.00 cumulative average in Carroll course work is subject to, following a review by the academic steering committee, academic action.

ACCREDITATION

Carroll is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association. The teacher education program is approved by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction; accounting by the State of Wisconsin Accounting Examining Board; chemistry and biochemistry by the Committee on Professional Training of the American Chemical Society. The athletic training program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education. The entry level Master and Doctor of Physical Therapy programs are accredited by the Higher Learning Commission/North Central Association and the Commission on Accreditation of Physical Therapy Education, American Physical Therapy Association. The Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies program is accredited by the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant. The Carroll University nursing program (started in fall 2002) is approved by the Wisconsin State Board of Nursing, and is accredited by the Commission of Collegiate Nursing Education. The Carroll University/Columbia College of Nursing (CCON) program was approved by the National League for Nursing and accredited by the Wisconsin State Board of Nursing (ended summer 2005). The social work major was approved by the Council on Social Work Education; the medical technology major was accredited by the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Sciences.

CALENDAR

4-1-4 plus two six-week summer sessions through Summer 1996.

As of Fall 1996: Fall Semester (Sept-Dec); Winter Session (Jan, two or three weeks); Spring Semester (Jan-May); Summer Sessions: Summer I (three weeks); Summer II and III (six weeks each).

CLASSIFICATION

Freshman, 0-27 credits; sophomore, 28-59 credits; junior, 60-91 credits; senior, 92 or more credits.

FYS DESCRIPTION

First Year Seminar is a one semester course taken by freshman to initiate them into the academic life of the university and introduce the intellectual ideas at the heart of liberal studies. It develops the skills of reading, writing, oral presentation, group work and information technology necessary for academic achievement at the college level. First Year Seminar was discontinued after the 2010-2011 academic year.

CROSS CULTURAL SEMINAR

The cultural seminar, which is taken in the first semester, begins the exploration of culture through the study of one's own culture and a different culture. The course develops oral communication skills through critical reading and discussion.

The complete record is considered, and there must be a minimum of 64 credits of letter grades earned at Carroll University.

Repeating Coursework Graded C, D or F at Carroll University

Effective July 2011, any Carroll University credit earned with a C, D or F grade may be retaken at Carroll one time only for any given course. Both the C, D or F grade and the repeated grade will be recorded on the Carroll University transcript, but only the last grade awarded will be used in the appropriate grade point calculations. A student may not replace a Carroll University C, D or F with transfer credit. Prior to July 2011 only courses graded D or F were repeatable.

Repeating Transfer Coursework Graded C, D or F

Effective July 2011, any transfer credit with an earned C, D, or F may be retaken one time only for credit with a similar course at Carroll University or at another accredited institution as approved by the Registrar. Both the C, D or F grade and the repeated grade will be recorded on the Carroll University transcript, but only the last grade awarded will be used in the appropriate grade point calculations. Prior to July 2011 only courses graded D or F were repeatable.

TRANSFER COURSES

Only courses accepted for transfer will appear on this transcript.
